His joints hurt as well; his ankles and wrists; he can't walk. I have been praying all day. Can you please send a prayer request out to everyone to pray for him, fast for him, anything they can do. He has an infusion scheduled tomorrow and I am scared. I gave him benadryl, acetaminophen and some homeopathic medicine. I read if it's a chemo rash CBD may help, I need Gods wisdom on what to do next. Thank you. We are entering into his next phase of treatment where he will lose his hair. I also need prayers for him to endure the side-effects, the medicine is a beast I have heard. I hate this and I wouldn't wish this on my worst enemy but I know God is bigger than this and He will provide and deliver our little boy.
